Complete list of ALL farm/vendor products that will be brought to the Durango Farmers Market AND anticipated date of availability:

How long have you participated in the Durango Farmers Market?

Is your farm open to the public or scheduled visits? If yes, when and how?

Can people buy your products at other locations?

If you plan to offer samples, please sign the affidavit in both places. If a food-borne illness is linked to sampling at ANY Farmers market in Colorado, the State Health Department has said they will consider not allowing any sampling, period. So let's be careful and follow the guidelines.

I have read and understand the Durango Farmers Market By-Laws and Rules and Regulations.
